AW! YOU'RE NO HELP! ANYWAY, WHERE COULD I GET ANY OF THOSE THINGS AT SUCH A LATE DATE?
THEN DO IT THE OLD-FASHIONED WAY! JUST BUY HER A CAKE SING HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO HER, AND FORGET THE WHOLE THING!
WAIT! THAT GIVES ME AN IDEA! I'LL BAKE A REAL LARGE CAKE ... HIDE INSIDE, AND AT THE APPROPRIATE TIME I POP OUT OF THE CAKE AND SING HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

THEN YOU POP OUT OF THE CAKE AND SING HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

WHAT DID YOU DO WITH THE PART YOU TOOK OUT OF THE MIDDLE OF THE CAKE? I'M HUNGRY!
FORGET ABOUT FOOD FOR A MINUTE! NOW REMEMBER YOU DON'T COME OUT AND SING UNTIL I LIFT THE LID!
I HOPE ALL OF PETUNIA'S FRIENDS WILL BE ABLE TO MAKE THE PARTY AT THIS LATE NOTICE!
I WANT TO TELL YOU ABOUT THAT.

WELL, IT WAS A CUTE IDEA, ANYWAY!
I KNOW WHAT! WHY DON'T WE ALL GO OUT AND EAT?
THAT'S A GREAT IDEA!
PSST! PSST! DAFFY!
WE CAN'T GO OUT AND EAT! WE INVITED ALL HER FRIENDS OVER HERE FOR A SURPRISE PARTY!
I WANT TO TELL YOU ABOUT THAT! YOU SEE I WAS ON THE BICYCLE...

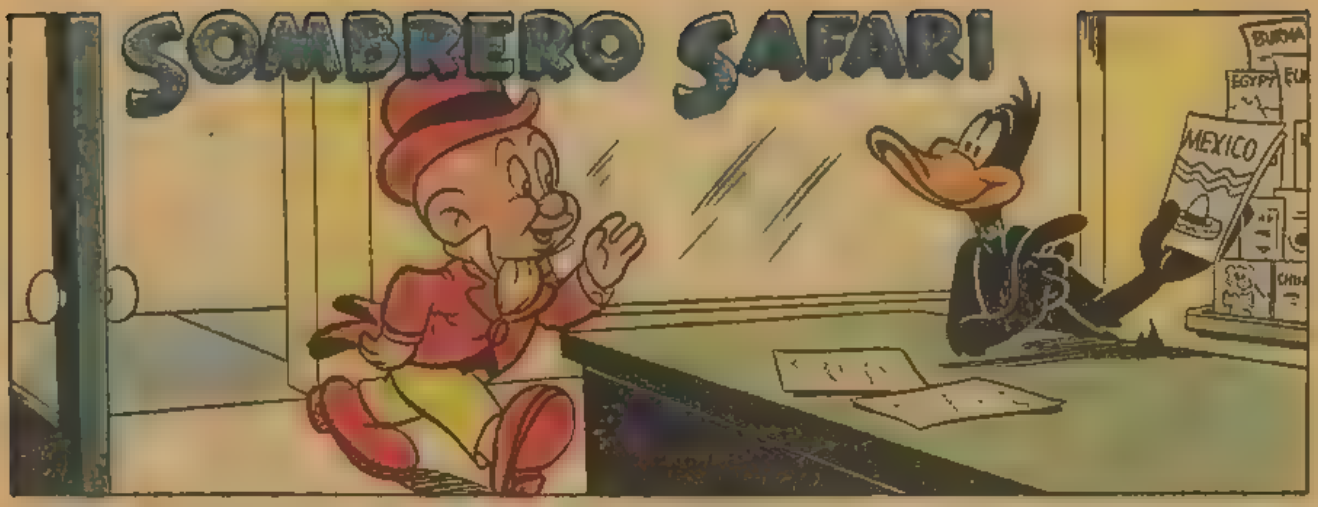
SURPRISE!
OHHHHHH!
NOW WOULD YOU MIND TELLING ME WHAT HAPPENED TO THOSE INVITATIONS?
LIKE I STARTED TO SAY...THE WIND WAS BLOWING AND I WAS BY THE CIRCUS, AND, WELL...THE REST IS OBVIOUS!

SOMBRERO SAFARI



"Greetings, friend!" cried Daffy Duck cheerily from behind the counter of his newly-opened travel bureau, as Elmer Fudd walked through the door one day. "Welcome to Daffy's Global Gadabout — everything from a walk around the block to a slow boat to China! Do these tired ole eyes deceive me," he chuckled, "or do I see the gleam of wanderlust in your eyes?"

"You're quite wight, Daffy, old pal," replied Elmer with a smile. "I'd like — "

"Ah, travel!" interrupted Daffy enthusiastically. "Tropic isles! Balmy breezes!"

"Yes, but I'd like — " began Elmer again only to be cut short once more.

"Sandy beaches! Glamour! Mexico City! Ah, that's it!" caroled Daffy with sudden inspiration. "Mexico! The land of my dreams! That's where you'll go, Elmer! Down to beautiful Mexico!" he continued, as he began a hasty search for the proper travel folders. "I can see it now — "

"But I don't want to go to Mexico!" interjected Elmer. "I want to go to Lapland and see the weindeer!"

"But it's cold in Lapland!" objected Daffy with a slight shiver. "You'll like Mexico much better," he added with a reassuring pat on Elmer's shoulder. "Just think of all those tortillas and serapes you can eat! And the fragrance of castanets blooming in the moonlight!

"Yes, indeed," Daffy continued, absorbed in his search through a long schedule of plane flights to Mexico City. "You'll love Mexico! And here," he went on triumphantly, "is a plane leaving for Mexico City this very afternoon!"

"And here's a plane leaving for Lapland this afternoon, too!" countered Elmer, jabbing his finger at another timetable which he had picked up from the counter. "Now if you'll just get me a weserva — "

"Oh, I'll take care of everything!" chortled Daffy merrily. "To show you what a pal I am, I'll even pack your bags and send them off to the airport for you," he added with a cheerful wink. "You just go down there and wait, and before you know it we'll — er — that is, you'll be in sunny Mexico!"

"But I want to go to Lapland!" wailed Elmer as Daffy disappeared down the street. "Oh dear, oh dear!" he muttered disconsolately as he hailed a taxi and headed for the airport. "That dwatted duck is up to something! Whatever will I do . . ."

Elmer's bags arrived as promised and were loaded at once on a large plane already warming up on the airfield. Elmer boarded the plane and soon found himself taking off with a roar, gliding high above the clouds and then settling down for a landing.

No sooner had Elmer and his bags been deposited at his destination than a loud thumping sounded from the largest trunk.

"Well, well, if it isn't my old fwiend Daffy!" exclaimed Elmer as he opened the trunk and Daffy emerged, complete with sombrero and guitar. "I only hope your costume won't fwighten the weindeer!"

"'Retndeer!" gulped Daffy, turning pale up to his sombrero. "But I thought — "

"I made my own weservations when I got to the airport!" laughed Elmer in explanation. "You didn't manage a fwee twip to the land of chili after all, so a chilly land will have to do instead!"
